

Progressivism Research Outline

Due Date: _____ (10% off each day it is late)

You will be assigned one of the major figures from the Progressive Era of American History. You will research the life of this person and create a parenthetical outline based on this person's life and legacy.

Format:

1. Cover page with image of your historical figure (see example)
 2. Parenthetical outline (see example)
 3. Works cited page (see example)
- This entire assignment must be typed, double spaced, 11 point font, Arial

Required Sources: 3 total sources

- 1 print source (reference book, encyclopedia, or a book on your figure)
- 1 Electronic source (electronic: database, Ebooks) NO WEBSITES of any kind!
- 1 primary source!
- Use MLA format for your works cited (MLA 8) using NoodlTools (you can use more than 3 sources)

Outline Basics:

Your outline will need to cover the following areas of your person's life:

1. Early life (birth, family life, education, career/occupations)
2. Progressive Reform (use your primary source here)
3. Legacy (what did that person do that impacts American society today)

See the outline examples for clarification on what to cover

Directions for the outline:

- First letter of every new bullet should be capitalized
- Any information you gained from a source should be in complete sentences AND cited on the outline (see example outline)

Citation of Sources in the Outline:

- Parenthetical citations = (Last name page number) Example: (Smith 249)
